"Without any prior sketch or idea, I try to switch off my thoughts as far as possible so as to bring the debris in my mind uncensored into the daylight. The result is a highly personal form of psychogram."

"The size of the picture is usually the only thing I deliberately decide beforehand—I let the content take me by surprise."

"Unfortunately, I seem to have an uncanny knack of attracting people who are psychically ill. They suddenly see their own problems represented in my pictures and they think I am one of them."

On working with an airbrush:
"One becomes a mere automaton, a machine, functioning, even when one has overstepped the frontiers of lucid thought, as for example in a state of intoxication."

"When someone asks why my work looks so terrible, so dangerous, or so frightening, I answer that it looks like what the world could be like. In some way, I think the time we live in now is the best."

"Once I start [to paint], I am so disturbed by the white surface in front of me that I have to work continually until everything is covered. I am driven on by my obsessions, by the pleasure of successfully accomplishing a particular detail, by new inventions and pictorial relationships, or simply the possibility of visualizing personal tensions, anxieties, and problems and freeing myself of them."

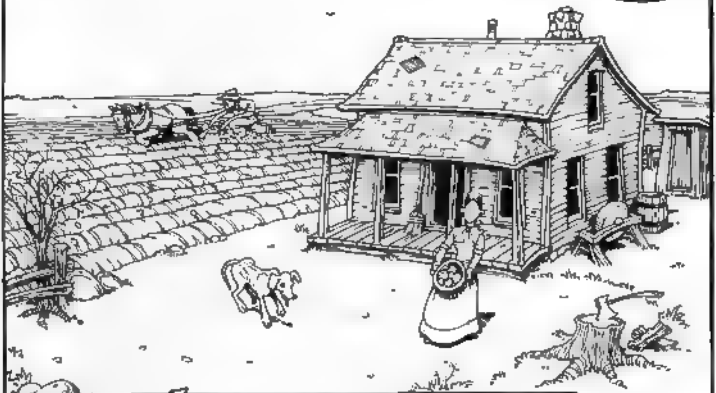
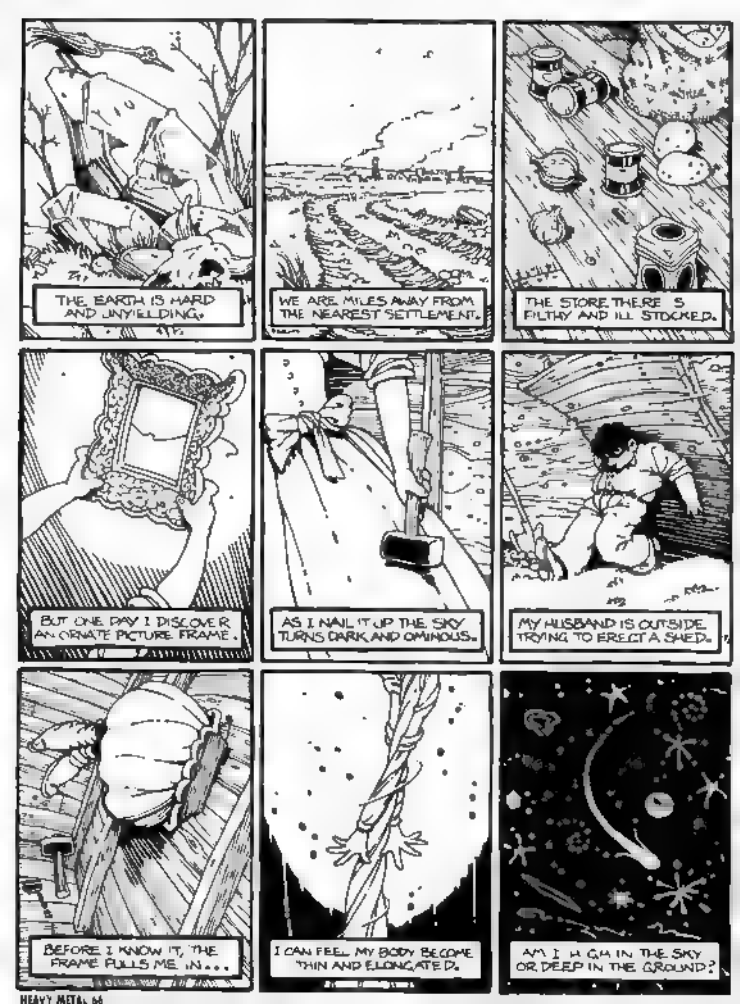
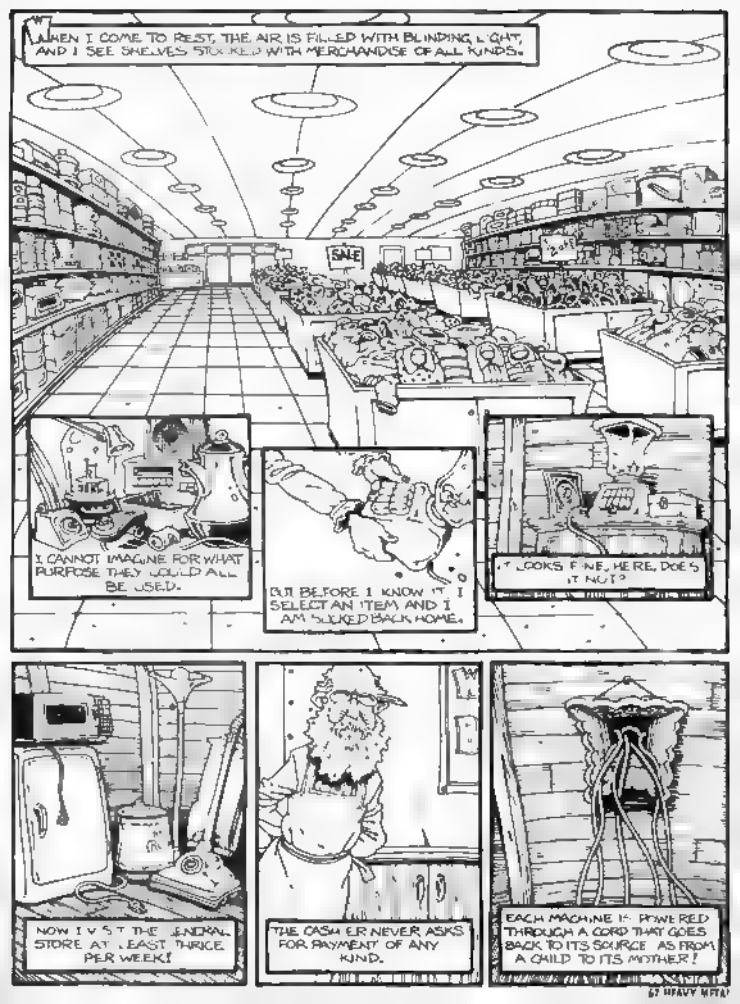
THE GENERAL STORE

RICK GEARY ©90





THE EARTH IS HARD AND UNYIELDING.
WE ARE MILES AWAY FROM THE NEAREST SETTLEMENT.
THE STORE THERE S FILTHY AND ILL STOCKED.
BUT ONE DAY I DISCOVER AN ORNATE PICTURE FRAME.
AS I NAIL IT UP THE SKY TURNS DARK AND OMINOUS.
MY HUSBAND IS OUTSIDE TRYING TO ERECT A SHED.
BEFORE I KNOW IT, THE FRAME FULLS ME IN...
I CAN FEEL MY BODY BECOME THIN AND ELONGATED.
AM I IN THE SKY OR DEEP IN THE GROUND?



WHEN I COME TO REST, THE AIR IS FILLED WITH BLINDING LIGHT, AND I SEE SHELVES STOCKED WITH MERCHANDISE OF ALL KINDS.
SALE
I CANNOT IMAGINE FOR WHAT PURPOSE THEY WOULD ALL BE USED.
BUT BEFORE I KNOW IT I SELECT AN ITEM AND I AM SUCKED BACK HOME.
IT LOOKS FINE, HERE, DOES IT NOT?
NOW I VISIT THE GENERAL STORE AT LEAST THRICE PER WEEK!
THE CASHIER NEVER ASKS FOR PAYMENT OF ANY KIND.
